Short-Term Support Application

To enable the King Road MB Missions Committee to wisely utilize the resources that have been provided, and discern along with applicants where they are being challenged to follow Jesus. We ask that you complete this application as thoroughly and faithfully as possible.

This application is for those:

1. who are interested in discerning whether God is calling them on a short-term missions experience
2. Participating in a missions based program lasting between three weeks and just under two years.
3. OR who are part of a distinct discipleship training program or school.
4. OR who are involved with a fixed term of leadership at such an organization.

The mission's committee reserves the right to designate applications outside of these guidelines as short term on the basis of a committee meeting and confirmation.
